APPLICANTS FOR THE LC KLUGE STAFF FELLOWSHIP (the following applies ONLY to Library of Congress staff members). Please attach a separate statement that

- G Explains how you acquired your specialized subject, regional, and / or language expertise;
- G Describes your current LC position and explains why your proposed research can NOT be done as part of your regularly assigned duties;
- Gives the month and year of the start of your LC employment (applications that lack this information will be returned).

Also, have your supervisor and division chief sign the Notification Form, indicating that they are aware of your interest in the LC Kluge Staff Fellowship program.

Part 7. CERTIFICATION
I certify that the information given above is correct	t to the best of my knowledge.

INSTRUCTIONS

Supply answers to all questions. If a question is not applicable, please mark it "N/A" Submit other required materials such as the curriculum vitae, project abstract, project proposal, and bibliography along with the application. Supplementary material not specifically requested as part of the application will be discarded.

Keep in mind that application materials will be reviewed by a panel of scholars. The panel will consider your application in relation to as many as 30 or more other applications. They will consider your experience, your record of scholarly activity, your professional accomplishments, the likelihood that you will be able to complete and publish your research, and most of all, the significance of what it is that you propose the research. Remember too that you have to demonstrate how important it is to your research that it be done specifically at the Library of Congress. All resident research programs require full time attendance at the Library of Congress; grant funds may not be used to work elsewhere.

Insure that your selected references have enough time to consider and comment on your proposal and to submit their letters of reference to the Library by the program deadline date. Letters of reference are more highly regarded if they address the specific proposed activity and how well the candidate is suited to undertake it, as opposed to being simply letters that verify character, limit comments to previous work, or make only general observations on the topic.

Applications must be post-marked by the deadline date in any given year of competition. Because of continuing mail delivery delays, applications may be emailed to: scholarly@loc.gov, or faxed to: 202 707-3595 in order to insure submission by the program deadline date. If faxed or emailed, the original, signed application form must be mailed and received at the Library within three weeks of the application deadline.

If applying for the Kluge Fellowship program, send application and all supporting materials by August 15 to: Kluge Fellowships Program, Office of Scholarly Programs, Library of Congress, 101 Independence Ave., S.E., Washington, DC 20540-4860

If applying for the Rockefeller Fellowship program, send application and all supporting materials by September 30 to: Rockefeller Fellowships Program, Office of Scholarly Programs, Library of Congress, 101 Independence Ave., S.E., Washington, DC 20540-4860
